Appreciate & Celebrate Where You Are Today

BEATTY SECONDARY SCHOOL

NURTURING ADAPTIVE THINKERS, AGILE LEARNERS AND ACTIVE CONTRIBUTORS

Recognise & Label

Be aware of how you are feeling

Negative Emotions

You might feel anxious, worried, or envious. It is about expectations of self, or perhaps of others of you. Never compare.

Neutral Emotions

You might feel neither elated not sad; you might even feel indifferent. It is ok.

Positive Emotions

You might feel overjoyed, euphoric. It is again about expectations – you might have exceeded your own, or that of others of you. Again, never compare.

BAD

GOOD

Regulating Emotions

How you could help yourself, not just now, but in future situations as well

SPOT

Recognise your emotion

Be aware of how you are feeling. If you have a negative sentiment, become aware of it. Label that emotion. Are you feeling angry? Are you feeling dejected?

STOP

Hold the emotion

Stop what is causing that emotion. If it is your results, remove yourself from the situation, inhale deeply and exhale slowly using counts of 10, and seek the help of an adult.

SWAP

Change the emotion

Know that what caused the emotion is not permanent and is not a measure of other aspects of your life. It does not define who you are as a person. There are many good choices to consider. Speak to a trusted adult or friend.
